

CONSENT
on holding and processing personal data

With the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), a European-wide law that comes into effect 25 May 2018, Magnum Hunt Executive Search (MH ES) needs your Consent to store and process your personal data for the purposes of our business. If we do not have your Consent, in compliance with the new GDPR legislation we will not be able to hold your data and to contact you on any matter.

We are registered in England and Wales under company number 2660847. We operate the following website: www.magnumhunt.co.uk. The MH ES Privacy Policy is available on our website and can be found HERE. You do not give out your personal data by visiting our website.

Hereby I, _____
(name, surname, middle name if applicable)
birthday (day/month/year) and place of birth: _____
passport _____, issued _____ (ID information: type of ID, number, date of issue and authority issued)

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

CONSENT in accordance with GDPR on storing, processing and updating of my personal data including, but not restricted to:

- name, surname, birthday and place of birth, information about education, professional qualifications and associations;
- passport details,
- contact details (e-mail, phone);
- CV provided by me, including professional experience information – the employer`s name, employment`s dates, job titles, department, income, bonuses, achievements and other professional related information specified in CV.

for the purposes of considering me for MH ES clients` vacancies and for other MH ES legitimate interest:

- Assessment;
- Board Search;
- Executive Search;
- Consulting;
- Industry Market Mapping
- Marketing events.

The Consent is valid starting the date of it`s signing until the date of its withdrawal, unless otherwise provided by the current legislation.

date

signature